

IAL: to answer find and retrieve questions.

Read the next part of the story below and complete the questions.

Jack was sent to his bedroom. He lay down on his bed and cried himself to sleep. The next morning, Jack woke up and noticed that his bedroom was much darker than usual. A shadow fell across the room. He ran outside to investigate.

A 1. Where was Jack sent to?

Jack was sent to his bedroom.

2. Where did he lie down?

Jack lay down on his bed.

3. What did Jack do when laying on his bed?

Jack cried himself to sleep.

B 1. What did Jack notice the next morning?

Jack noticed that his bedroom was much darker than usual.

2. When did Jack notice that his bedroom was much darker?

Jack noticed the next morning.

3. Find and retrieve the word that tells you how Jack went outside.

He ran outside.

IAL: to apply phonic knowledge and skills to decode words.

Add sound buttons to the words below. Sort the words into real and nonsense words using Obb and Bob. Write sentences using the real words.

boy

soun

whub

phone

when

toe

coya

kayn

cloud

day

phud

noet

X

soun	boy
whub	phone
coya	when
kayn	toe
phud	cloud
noet	day

Challenge: how many digraphs can you spot in the above words?

oy ou wh ph oe ay

IAL: to extend sentences using conjunctions 'and' and 'because'

The conjunction and is used to extend a sentence.

The conjunction because is used to give a reason.

A

Extend these sentences using and.

1. I went to the park and _____.
2. There was a dog _____.
3. I got on the bus _____.

B

Choose and or because to complete these sentences.

1. I went to the shop and I bought some sweets.
2. I turned the light on because it was too dark.
3. We had ice cream because it was too hot outside.
4. They looked out the window and they saw a cat.

C

Write the start of these sentences so that they make sense.

1. because it was my birthday.
2. because it was raining.
3. because he got stung by a bee.
4. because it was late.

Now change the ending of one of your sentences to give a different reason using 'because'.

Writing task

Write some sentences explaining what you have been doing during your time at home. Try to extend your sentences using 'and' and 'because'

Spelling words this week:

bare, dare, care, share, scared